

CAUCUS OF WESTERLY DEMOCRATS

Held on Tuesday Evening—Verdict of Guilty in Bannon Liquor Nuisance Case—Sentence Deferred—Mary Costanzo's Parents Refuse to Admit Repentant Daughter—Relief Corps Inspection.

In the case against Thomas J. Bannon, indicted for maintaining a liquor nuisance, which was commenced Monday, Mrs. Bertha Harrington, wife of Thomas Harrington of Pawcatuck, testified that she bought half a pint of whiskey at Bannon's for her husband, who was sick at the time. This was on April 7, when the poison whiskey score provided. Owing to the death of her husband, she was afraid to give the liquor to her husband. It smelled like whiskey but neither the witness or her husband tasted it. Subsequently the bottle was sealed and labeled and given a name named Perry, representing some state department, presumably for analysis. Mrs. Harrington identified the bottle in court.

Clifford E. Perrin testified that he was with his father, William D. Perrin, about a year ago, when he had a pint of whiskey purchased at Bannon's. Later he was with his father when he bought alcohol at the same store. The senior Perrin died April 3. There was an autopsy as it was supposed he had died from the effects of drinking too much alcohol.

Miss Mattie E. Kenyon, Bernard T. McCormick, brother-in-law of Bannon, Doherty, Chickory Mousell, Harry R. Collins, William H. Holland, a former policeman, Ray J. Fock, Joseph M. M. Clarke, Ira R. Crandall, Rev. Frederick A. C. Jones, Rev. Samuel M. Cathcart, Deputy Sheriff Mitchell, Chief Brandell, Policemen Brown and West were among those who testified that the Bannon store had the reputation of a place where intoxicating liquors are sold.

Town Clerk Everett E. Whipple testified that from January, 1909, the town had granted no license for the sale of liquor and that no license had been issued to Mr. Bannon or the other drugstore of Westerly.

George E. Perkins, Dr. Edwin A. Whitford, Byron D. Burdick, ex-Gov. George H. Titer and Frank W. Coy also testified.

After arguments by Assistant Attorney General George E. Perkins and Judge John W. Sweeney for the defense, Judge Brown delivered his charge, all of which was complied with in less than two hours. The jury, after half an hour's deliberation, returned a verdict of guilty. Sentence was deferred.

Charles R. Woodcock, police inspector of Lawrence, Mass., arrived in Westerly Tuesday evening, having in charge Mary Costanzo, the 17 year old girl who left her home in Pawcatuck street six months ago and who has had a severe experience during that time. She has led a wandering life during her absence and was relieved Tuesday morning as a witness in a white slave case in the superior court at Lawrence.

Miss Hope Principal of Boston Public Cooking School for 15 years, says of Crawford Ranges

"I have used several makes of ranges but consider the Crawford the best. It uses less coal and gives a more even heat than any range I ever saw."

The Single Damper (patented) affords the only perfect control of fire and oven.

The Oven has no "cold corners" nor "scorching spots," because of the cup-joint heat flues.
